

Funding Unlocks: Fatherhood & Family Resilience Initiative

Every dollar is tied to documented activities and outcomes in our Theory of Change and budget narrative. Here is exactly what Year One funding activates:

Year One Outputs

- 110 fathers enrolled
- 100 structured sessions delivered
- 55 mentor–mentee matches formed
- 4 community events hosted annually
- Over 3,000 meals provided
- 7 facilitators trained
- $\geq 80\%$ evaluation participation rate

How the Initiative Works

- Weekly fatherhood and discipleship sessions
- Biweekly mentor check-ins; monthly mentor-mentee activities
- Wraparound supports (meals, transportation, childcare)
- Community engagement events (kickoff and graduation)
- Staff training and quality assurance/compliance
- Evaluation with baseline and follow-up assessments (surveys and CRM)

Sponsor What Matters (Budget-Referenced Items)

- Meals & Refreshments: $30,000
- Participant Transportation: $7,500
- Recruitment & Outreach: $3,000
- Program Events: $3,000
- Mentor–Mentee Activities: $4,000
- CRM/Intake Software: $2,000
- Zoom & Cloud Subscriptions: $1,500
- Website & Communications Tools: $1,000
- Surveys & Evaluation Tools: $500
- Office Rent: $4,800
- Insurance: $3,000
- Phones & Laptops: $12,000
- Accounting Services: $9,750

Outcomes We Track

Short-Term (0–6 months):

- 90% session attendance
- 85% report increased parenting confidence
- Initial trust and rapport built between fathers and mentors

Intermediate (6–12 months):

- 70% report improved family dynamics
- 60% demonstrate reduced conflict behaviors
- 75% of mentors report participant growth

Long-Term (1–3 years):

- Increased father presence in households
- Enhanced child well-being and development
- Reduced dependency on reactive social services
- Established community networks sustaining fatherhood engagement

Call to Action

Sponsor a session or a mentor–mentee activity. Provide transportation or host a meal night. Join our mentor corps. Make warm introductions to local supporters. Contact: info@2cdestiny.org